

High Heels and Headdresses: Memoirs of a Vintage Vegas Showgirl

In the golden age of the showgirl, dancers were treated like royalty. But Las Vegas legend Betty Bunch was no pampered princess. In her thirty years on the stage, screen, and television, she faced everything from threatening tigers and menacing movie elephants to leering mob men and bait-in-switch producers. Betty impressed and worked with many of the days best known stars. She danced in the movies South Pacific, Bells Are Ringing, Imitation of Life and others, as well as performing at nine Las Vegas resorts. Betty spent time on the road as a featured dancer with Tony Martin, Louis Prima and the Witnesses, Jimmy Durante, and three television specials with Dean Martin. She was a featured performer in the original company of Bottoms Up at Caesars Palace and still performs with the company Golden Rainbow. Her varied television acting appearances include Whos the Boss?, Moonlighting, Americas Most Wanted and a two time appearance on Mamas Family as guest star. Betty has also appeared on four episodes of Spy TV. Movie credits include Entropy, Mars Attacks, Starman, and Oh God! You Devil. For three seasons, Betty was the Equity guest artist in Tulsa, Oklahoma at Discoverlands acclaimed production of Oklahoma!
