Peg Bailey plays softball. She's not very good at it. She has a very bad attitude, probably from having been bullied so much in the past. She sees an act of bullying at her new school in Port Charlotte, Florida and does something very horrible to stop it. Turns out, the little Asian boy she saved, Art Cheng, is a genius and a master of Vietnamese Martial Arts. In gratitude for that charitable act, he does her the greatest favor in the world. He uses his engineering and scientific knowledge along with Asian martial arts discipline to make her the home run master of her softball league, as well as the deadliest strike-out pitcher on the coast. Her team The Best Shot crawls and scratches their way to the championship game, but a lot of folks want to stop her. Some bullies just never give up.
