

Pagan Journeys: A collection of articles and interviews on Druidry, sacred places, and natural health

This is a collection on pagan living and related topics. They include interviews with Druids, as well as first-hand accounts of pagan festivals and sacred locations. There are chapters on Druid gardening, healing, crystals, and meditation. Part 1 is a series of interviews with three Druids, a clairvoyant who runs a crystal healing shop, and my own experience of a Druid solstice ceremony. Part 2 looks at ancient sacred places across the UK, including stone circles, prehistoric burial grounds, and special places. It includes: Wiltshires Stone Circles and Burial Mounds, Summer Solstice Festivals, The Secrets of Grimes Graves, Glastonbury, Whiteleaf Cross, the Ring of Brodgor, Castlerigg, the Rollright Stones, and Lough Gurr. Part 3 focuses on natural healing. It looks at the evidence for natural approaches to healthcare including healthy eating, meditation, and relaxation, as well as how a raw vegan lifestyle could have extra clout when it comes to healing.
